

LANXESS EDUCATION INITIATIVE

At LANXESS, we endeavor to encourage young people worldwide to develop a passion for science and chemistry at a young age and in this way make them aware of the diverse career opportunities that these fields offer. With the LANXESS education initiative, we have established projects at many of our sites to pursue these objectives in varying ways. In El Dorado, we have pledged $250,000 over the next 5 years to sponsor STEM programs in Union County schools. Funds will begin to be awarded in

In order to apply for these funds, please complete the following application and return to:
